CONDITIONS OF SALE

I. Rejection of bids: Any bid which is not commensurate with the value of the article offered or which is merely a nominal or fractional advance may be rejected by the auctioneer if in his judgment such bid would be likely to affect the sale injuriously.

II. The buyer: The highest bidder shall be the buyer, and if any dispute arises between two or more bidders, the auctioneer shall either decide the same or put up for re-sale the lot so in dispute.

III. Identification and part payment by buyer: The name of the buyer of each lot shall be given immediately on the sale thereof, and when so required, each buyer shall sign a card giving the lot number, amount for which sold, and his or her name and address.

Payment at the actual time of the sale shall be made of all or such part of the purchase prices as may be required.

If the two foregoing conditions are not complied with, the lot or lots so purchased may at the option of the auctioneer be put up again and re-sold.

IV. Risk after purchase: Title passes upon the fall of the auctioneer's hammer, and thereafter neither the consignor nor the Association is responsible for the loss or any damage to any article occasioned by theft, fire, breakage or any other cause.

V. Delivery of purchases: Delivery of any purchases will be made only upon payment of the total amount due for all purchases at the sale.

Deliveries will be made at the place of sale or at the storage warehouse to which purchases may have been removed.

Deliveries at the American Art Galleries will be made only between the hours of 9 A. M. and 1 P. M. on sales' days and on other days—except holidays, when no deliveries will be made—between the hours of 9 A. M. and 5 P. M.

Deliveries at places of sale other than the American Art Galleries will be made only during the forenoon following the day of sale unless by special notice or arrangement to the contrary.

Deliveries at the storage warehouse to which goods may have been sent will be made on any day other than holidays between the hours of 9 and 5.

Deliveries of any purchases of small articles likely to be lost or mislaid may be made at the discretion of the auctioneer during the session of the sale at which they were sold.

VI. Storage in default of prompt payment and calling for goods: Articles not paid for in full and either not called for by the purchaser or delivered upon his or her order by noon of the day following that of the sale will be turned over by the Association to some carter to be carried to and stored in some warehouse until the time of the delivery therefrom to the purchaser, and the cost of such cartage and storage will be charged against the purchaser and the risk of loss or damage occasioned by such removal or storage will be upon the purchaser.

NOTE: The Limited space of the Delivery Rooms of the Association makes the above requirements necessary, and it is not alone for the benefit of the Association, but also for that of its patrons, whose goods otherwise would have to be so crowded as to be subject to damage and loss.

VII. Shipping: Shipping, boxing or wrapping of purchases is a business in which the Association is in no wise engaged, and will not be performed by the Association for purchasers. The Association will, however, afford to purchasers every facility for employing at current and reasonable rates carriers and packers; doing so, however, without any assumption of responsibility on its part for the acts and charges of the parties engaged for such service.

VIII. Guaranty: The Association exercises great care to catalogue every lot correctly and endeavors therein and also at the actual time of sale to point out any error, defect or imperfection, but guaranty is not made either by the owner or the Association of the correctness of the description, genuineness, authenticity or condition of any lot and no sale will be set aside on account of any incorrectness, error of cataloguing or imperfection not noted or pointed out. Every lot is sold "as is" and without recourse.

Every lot is on public exhibition one or more days prior to its sale, and the Association will give consideration to the opinion of any trustworthy expert to the effect that any lot has been incorrectly catalogued and in its judgment may thereafter sell the lot as catalogued or make mention of the opinion of such expert, who thereby will become responsible for such damage as might result were his opinion without foundation.

IX. Buying on order: Buying or bidding by the Association for responsible parties on orders transmitted to it by mail, telegraph or telephone will be faithfully attended to without charge or commission. Any purchases so made will be subject to the foregoing conditions of sale except that, in the event of a purchase of a lot of one or more books by or for a purchaser who has not through himself or his agent been present at the exhibition or sale, the Association will permit such lot to be returned within ten days from the date of sale and the purchase money will be refunded if the lot in any manner differs from its catalogue description.

Orders for execution by the Association should be written and given with such plainness as to leave no room for misunderstanding. Not only should the lot number be given, but also the title, and bids should be stated to be so much for the lot, and when the lot consists of one or more volumes of books or objects of art, the bid per volume or piece should also be stated. If the one transmitting the order is unknown to the Association, a deposit should be sent or references submitted. Shipping directions should also be given.

Priced Catalogues: Priced copies of the catalogue or any session thereof, will be furnished by the Association at charges commensurate with the duties involved in copying the necessary information from the records of the Association.

INTELLIGENT APPRAISALS
FOR
UNITED STATES AND STATE TAX
INSURANCE AND OTHER PURPOSES
AND
CATALOGUES OF PRIVATE COLLECTIONS

APPRAISALS AND CATALOGUES. Together with the increase in its exhibition and sales rooms, the American Art Association will expand its service of furnishing appraisements, under expert direction, of art and literary property, jewelry and all personal effects, in the settlement of estates, for inheritance tax, insurance and other purposes. It is prepared also to supplement this work by making catalogues of the contents of homes or of entire estates, such catalogues to be modelled after the finely and intelligently produced catalogues of the Association's own Sales.

The Association will furnish at request the names of many Trust and Insurance Companies, Executors, Administrators, Trustees, Attorneys and private individuals for whom the Association has made appraisements which have not only been entirely satisfactory to them, but have been accepted by the United States Revenue Department, State Comptroller and others in interest.

NOTICE: The pictures described in this Catalogue under Nos. 1 to 145 (inclusive) were collected by MR. D. G. DERY, of Catasauqua, Pennsylvania, and are to be sold by order of GEORGE A. POST, JOHN P. MAGUIRE AND JOSEPH M. PROSKAUER, as Receivers of the D. G. DERY CORPORATION. ROUNDS, SCHURMAN AND DWIGHT, Attorneys.

EUGÈNE DE BLAAS

AUSTRIAN: 1843—

1—A BLONDE

(Panel)

Height, 10 inches; width, 7½ inches

FULL bust portrait of a young woman of agreeable features, figure to front and head turned towards her left shoulder; seated in a full light before a dark background. Her hair, of the reddish-blond type, is braided in a large knot at the back of her head and fringes with curls her forehead. She wears an open waist of mixed colors, with white sleeves, and has drawn a blue kerchief over her shoulders.

From the Joseph F. Knapp Collection, New York, 1909.

FRIEDRICH JOHANN VOLTZ

GERMAN: 1817—1886

2--LANDSCAPE WITH HERDER AND CATTLE

(Panel)

Height, 9 inches; length, 15½ inches

DARK gray storm clouds have passed away to the distant right, and the sun shines brightly over a flat green valley, on a hill which bounds it at the distant right, and over a middle distance bluff at the left whose nearer slope is in shadow. In the foreground a black bull stands athwart the picture, near a red and white cow lying down, and beyond these are other cattle. Reclining on the grass to right is their herder, looking away from the observer.

Signed at the lower left, FR. VOLTZ, '877

N. GRÜTZNER

GERMAN: NINETEENTH CENTURY

3--A JOLLY CONFAB

(Panel)

Height, 8¼ inches; length, 10¼ inches

STOUT and well fed monks sit at table with a white bearded man and all enjoy a merry conversation while refreshing flagons go 'round, with replenishment in sight. On the table are edibles and on the wall is a painting.

Signed at the lower centre, N. GRÜTZNER.

Purchased at the American Art Galleries, 1916.

JEAN LOUIS ERNEST MEISSONIER

FRENCH: 1813—1891

4—SLEEPING CAVALIER

(Panel)

Height, 8 inches; width, 5½ inches

ON a long wooden bench in front of a plastered stone wall a slim cavalier sits sleeping. His buff jacket with slashed sleeves shows white undersleeves, which appear at his wrists, and he wears an overhanging white collar and leather-red breeches. His hands are clasped about his sword, and a flagon stands on the bench beside him.

MARTIN RICO

SPANISH: 1850—1908

5—A CORNER OF VENICE

(Panel)

Height, 9 inches; length, 16 inches

ON the right a fondamenta along a red garden wall over which green vines appear, leading to steps over a marble bridge, where numerous figures are seen, and on the farther side a palace. At left a blue canal sparkling with ripples on a brilliant day, and on it some boats and sail. In the background across the water many buildings and gardens and a campanile.

Signed at the lower right, RICO.

JEAN GEORGES VIBERT

FRENCH: 1840—1902

6—A CAVALIER

(Panel)

Height, 12 inches; width, 9 inches

STANDING before draperies and a wall of neutral coloring, and in a full interior light, a tall man with long reddish hair and red goatee and long red moustache stands in proud vanity, twirling his finely twisted moustache. He faces the left, three-quarters front, and is clad in brown, scarlet and white.

Signed at the lower left, VIBERT.

JAN VAN BEERS

BELGIAN: 1852—

7—INDOLENCE

(Panel)

Height, 12½ inches; width, 10 inches

A BLOND young woman bare legged and bare armed, in a fluffy white dress of ballet length and open at the breast, reclines in an easy chair in a studio and faces the observer with a languid if a bit roguish smile. She reclines on a mass of soft fur rugs, against which her bare arms and feet nestle comfortably, and with knees crossed and head down upon her right shoulder she raises her right hand to meet her crown.

Signed at the upper left, JAN VAN BEERS, PARIS.

From the Mary Adelaide Yerkes Collection, New York, 1912.

JEAN GEORGES VIBERT

FRENCH: 1840—1902

8—THE ORATORICAL CARDINAL

(Panel)

Height, 13 inches; width, 10 inches

OUT to a country of rough fields, softened by the quiet light of a gray stream, a tall young cardinal has gone to practice declamation. Clouds of soft grayish-white overlie horizon banks of mauve. In these surroundings and against this aerial background he stands facing the observer, hat under left arm and left hand holding a manuscript, his right arm raised and extended in eloquent gesture as he reads and speaks.

Signed at the lower left, J. G. VIBERT.

LOUIS ALEXANDRE LELOIR

FRENCH: 1843—1884

9—STANDING FIGURE OF A GIRL

(Panel)

Height, 14 inches; width, 10 inches

STANDING in sunshine before the entrance to a wood of small trees, whose foliage is largely in autumn browns, a neat and pert young French girl is observed, back to the spectator, arms akimbo with hands saucily on hips, and face seen in profile across the left shoulder. She wears a turquoise-blue waist and a skirt of soft and warm red, and a white and pink lace cap.

Signed at the upper right, "À MON AMI E. LAMBERT, LOUIS LELOIR."

ADOLF SCHREYER

GERMAN: 1828—1899

10—A HARD TUG

(Panel)

Height, 6½ inches; length, 12 inches

COMING toward the spectator in a soft, slushy road through a wood, a heavily loaded, heavily built cart drawn by seven horses, a green coated and gray hatted man on one of the leaders and a swarthy man wearing a red coat and a red cap riding one of the wheelers. At right a man on horseback, accompanying. The horses white, black and sorrel and the woods brown.

Signed at the lower right, AD. SCHREYER.

FÉLIX ZIEM

FRENCH: 1821—1911

11—VENICE

(Panel)

Height, 10 $\frac{3}{4}$ inches; length, 15 $\frac{1}{4}$ inches

ON the right a broad quai, with occasional figures in colorful apparel, a gondola drawn alongside and boats with sails drawn up in the middle distance, their canvas pale gold and rose. Farther in the background, to right, the ducal and royal palaces, the domes of St. Mark's and the Campanile, and in the distant left, beyond the blue canal, the Salute in a haze.

Signed at the lower right, ZIEM.

JEAN JACQUES HENNER

FRENCH: 1829—1905

12—IDEAL HEAD

(Board)

BUST portrait of a typical Henneresque young woman, figure to left, three-quarters front, and face in profile to the left. White flesh against a dark background; brownish-red hair falling loose and long. Blue waist with moderate V corsage.

Signed at the upper left, J. J. HENNER.

JOHANN GEORG MEYER VON BREMEN

GERMAN: 1813—1886

13—GIRL READING

Height, 13½ inches; width, 10 inches

SEATED on a carved wood chair and facing three-quarters front toward the right, a blond mädchen is reading a large volume held on her knee, her hands clasped over the open pages. She is in gray and white and dull red, and wears a blue and plaid kerchief binding her hair. She is in a corner of a room of gray walls, and a green vine trails from flower-pot in a window embrasure behind her.

1879.*

LUDWIG KNAUS

GERMAN: 1829—1910

14—THE POPPIES

(Panel)

Height, 14½ inches; width, 10½ inches

THREE-QUARTERS length figure of a young girl with dark brown hair curled about her forehead and knotted back of her head, who is walking toward the left through a green and yellow hillside field dotted with field flowers. She turns her face toward the spectator and holds up a large bunch of freshly gathered red poppies in her right hand. She wears a white frock over blue, and carries her straw bonnet slung on her left arm by its black velvet ribbon.

EUGÈNE DE BLAAS

AUSTRIAN: 1843—

15—THE BRUNETTE

(Panel)

Height, 13 inches; width, 9½ inches

Bust portrait of an intriguing young woman with partly closed eyes, a delicate pink complexion, and dark hair loosely dressed with careful carelessness. She faces the observer with head poised over her left shoulder. Exposed chest, and coral beads about her throat; over her shoulders a light garment with faint stripes.

Signed at the upper right, EUGÈNE DE BLAAS.

From the Dr. Leslie D. Ward Collection, 1911.

JEAN JACQUES HENNER

FRENCH: 1829—1905

16—ANDROMEDA CHAINED TO THE ROCK

(Board)

ANDROMEDA nude and standing on her left foot, the right knee slightly flexed, faces the sheer rock cliff at the left, to which her hands are chained at the level of her head, her arms outstretched. She throws back her head in weary helplessness, her long hair of reddish golden-brown streaming from her back as in a light breeze, her face upward and its features unseen, the whole artistic effort concentrated upon the presentation of the figure and its flesh tones. The sea in the distance.

Signed at the lower left, J. J. HENNER.

Purchased from R. and M. Vose, Boston.

From the Alexander Blumenstiel Collection, New York, 1906.

JEAN CHARLES CAZIN

FRENCH: 1840—1901

17—LANDSCAPE WITH BUILDINGS

Height, 14 inches; width, 10 $\frac{3}{4}$ inches

BEYOND a short cleared foreground dappled with light and soft neutral colors of the short herbage, with spots of bareness, a line of cottages of engaging coloring, and about them shrubbery and brush, which take delicate tones in the clear sunshine of a bright day. The blue sky is filled with active white clouds. Near the cottages a few trees, with a single tall one near the centre of the composition, and in the distance a green hillside.

Signed at the lower right, J. C. CAZIN.

ALPHONSE DE NEUVILLE

FRENCH: 1836—1885

18—ARTILLERY MOVING TO ACTION

(Panel)

Height, 13 $\frac{1}{2}$ inches; length, 16 $\frac{1}{2}$ inches

ON an open battlefield, fringed by cover in the distance on the right, an artillery piece is being moved toward the battle front, away from the spectator, the horses balking and rearing and wrenching their riders' control in the face of exploding shells; foot soldiers pushing at the wheels. At right an officer riding up urges speed.

ALBERTO PASINI

ITALIAN: 1826—1899

19—EARNEST CONVERSATION IN ALGERIA

Height, 14 inches; width, 10 $\frac{3}{4}$ inches

AT a Moorish entrance in bright sunshine a soldier in blue breeches and rose blouse who has dismounted from his dark sorrel horse is talking earnestly with a tall guardian in red fez and green cloak. Above the red tile roof of the creamy building, a glimpse of dark green foliage and bright blue sky.

Signed at the lower right, A. PASINI.

JOHANN GEORG MEYER VON BREMEN

GERMAN: 1813—1886

20—THE HOUR OF REST

Height, 14 $\frac{3}{4}$ inches; width, 11 $\frac{1}{4}$ inches

A ROSY maid with smiling and curious eyes, and blond hair which she has allowed to fall free and down her back, has taken time from housework for a frugal meal and a few minutes reading and reflection. She is in red, with white sleeves rolled up to her elbows, and wears a long gray apron, and seated sidewise on her chair she leans back against a gray cottage wall and turns her head to look at the observer. Upon her falls the light from a window above the table at which she is sitting.

Signed at the lower right, MEYER VON BREMEN.

From Oliver Hoyt Collection, New York, 1918.

ÉMILE VAN MARCKE

FRENCH: 1827—1890

21—LANDSCAPE AND CATTLE

Height, 15½ inches; length, 22 inches

Low and flattened dune lands in sunshine at the edge of a white sea, which glistens in the distance, the light shimmering also on the surface of a stream in the middle distance emptying to the sea far out at the left. On the sands and among the grasses, a white cow and a red cow with a white face, lying down, and a black cow standing. Beyond them a boat drawn up from an inlet, and an ox cart with figures working about it.

Signed at the lower right, EM. VAN MARCKE.

JEAN BAPTISTE CAMILLE COROT

FRENCH: 1796—1875

22—LANDSCAPE WITH FIGURE

Height, 10½ inches; length, 13¾ inches

At right in middle distance the point of a wood luminously silhouetted before a light sky, with reflections of sky and foliage in a pool before it and the suggestion of a figure in the shadows. At left a treeless grassy bank abutting the stream, and far to the distance a level stretch of land or water reaching to the horizon. The light of day-break, and in the centre of the immediate foreground a figure standing against a slender beech and with raised right hand pointing to a spot in the empyrean.

*Signed at lower left, COROT. At lower right the stamp,
Vente COROT.*

JEAN FRANÇOIS MILLET

FRENCH: 1814—1875

23—TWO PENCIL DRAWINGS IN ONE FRAME

Height (complete) 19 $\frac{3}{4}$ inches; width, 14 $\frac{1}{2}$ inches

ONE a group of several figures, and a cow, a study apparently for some elaborate composition. The other a figure in a boat, with another tall figure appearing as walking on the water.

Signed (each) at the lower left, J. F. M.

JEAN FRANÇOIS MILLET

FRENCH: 1814—1875

24—A YOUNG GIRL EATING AN APPLE

Height, 22 inches; width, 18 $\frac{1}{4}$ inches

HALF-LENGTH portrait of a young girl, entering womanhood, figure to front and head turned slightly toward her right, a peasant of fair complexion for the rough life, with pinkish cheeks, and eyes a little tired. She is seated, and leans slightly forward, resting her right elbow and her left hand on a chairback or ledge which comes to view at the bottom of the picture. Her right hand carries to her mouth a succulent fruit whose generous size does not tax the capacity of flexible lips, and as the juice is yielded the expression of the girl is one of placid contentment. She is wearing a coat of mottled and soft grayish-green, over a gray-black waist above which a single white spot, the tip of an under garment, shows at the throat. Light from the left illumines a part of her face and reflects softly from the breast of her coat; the background dark.

Signed at the lower right, J. F. MILLET.

(Illustrated)

CHARLES FRANÇOIS DAUBIGNY

FRENCH: 1817—1878

25—LANDSCAPE WITH FIGURES

(Panel)

Height, 12¾ inches; length, 23½ inches

AFTER-SUNSET view of a shallow and marshy stream with green banks and bordering woods, and a village at centre of the far distance enclosed by the trees and dominated by its single church with a pointed spire. The stream and its banks fill foreground and middle distance, and at the left some small boats are drawn up at a gray shed, and two figures are observed near by. The whole in the gloaming of a showery day.

Signed at the lower right, DAUBIGNY.

JULES DUPRÉ

FRENCH: 1812—1889

26—LANDSCAPE AND CATTLE

(Panel)

Height, 7 inches; length, 9 inches

IN the foreground rich green coarse grasses partly in cloud shadow, and in middle distance at right two cows and a single white waisted figure with a red cap, catching in part a slant of sunshine, before a varied clump of trees. At left and in the distance, marshy meadows where more cattle are seen, and flat lands dotted with habitations.

CHARLES LINFORD

CONTEMPORARY

27—LANDSCAPE

Height, 18 inches; length, 26 inches

FOREGROUND green meadows are threaded by a meandering brook, across which a plain and low board foot bridge and an irregular path lead to a white farm house in the distance, with an outbuilding opposite it. To right are tree stumps, and across the background are green woods whose foliage is turning to brown.

Signed at the lower left, C. LINFORD; and again on the back with the date 1888.

HANS MAKART

AUSTRIAN: 1840—1884

28—LEDA AND THE SWAN

Height, 15 inches; length, 18 inches

LEDA reclines on her draperies on the green bank of a lily pond, her feet dipping into the water and figure turned toward the spectator. Back of her the swan has walked ashore and approached with spread wings, which she strokes fondly. The group against a background of dense green foliage.

Signed at the lower right, H. MAKART.

BRUCE CRANE, N.A.

AMERICAN: 1857—

29—SUNSET

Height, 12 inches; length, 16 inches

LIGHT has faded in the foreground and herbage details are seen dimly, on the left, before a dense copse of brownish trees, and over meadows on the right, while a stream on the right brightens with subdued reflections of clouds, whose darker sides toward the earth are gray. Beyond them the sky is luminous with rich golden light from the departed sun, and the cloud edges show a rich golden-orange reflection.

DANIEL RIDGWAY KNIGHT

AMERICAN: 1845—

30—HAILING THE FERRY

Height, 22 inches; width, 18 inches

AT left shrubbery and a green wood of slender trees bordering a narrow and placid river, its smooth surface a mirror of violet clouds and green banks, of bluish and gray boathouses and brown boats, and of creamy-white buildings which stand high on the farther shore. In the foreground a rosy cheeked maiden of the peasantry stands in a gray path leading to the water. She is seen in profile to the right, one hand raised to her mouth, and calling for a ferryman; in her other hand she holds a great brass jug.

THOMAS SULLY

AMERICAN: 1783—1872

31—PORTRAIT OF A YOUNG WOMAN

(Board)

Height, 23½ inches; width, 17½ inches

FULL bust portrait of a young lady in a broadly décolleté and simple gown of pale olive, partly enclosed by a coat of soft rose hue which has been dropped from one shoulder. She faces the observer, with large brown eyes bent on him, her finely regular and oval features, with cheeks delicately pink, framed by her soft brown hair, which is parted and smoothly brushed down the temples while a single elongated ringlet droops to her neck back of either ear. She wears a broad and dark hat, set at an angle, and trimmed in rose with a touch of blue. Dark neutral background glowing with emerald lights.

Found in Paris a generation ago.

THOMAS SULLY

AMERICAN: 1783—1872

32—PORTRAIT OF THE ARTIST'S DAUGHTER
"ROSALIE"

Height, 17 inches; width, 14 inches

A PLEASANT-FEATURED young woman, with small mouth, and large eyes whose color almost matches the rich and soft brown of her hair, save that the hair trends toward a warm reddish hue in its deeper masses; sensitive nostrils, and creamy cheeks flushing to rose. She is observed head and shoulders, the figure to left and shoulders nude, and her face turned to the spectator, and she rests her chin on her hand.

Note: Engraved.

ALEXANDER H. WYANT, N.A.

AMERICAN: 1836—1892

33—WOOD INTERIOR

Height, 12½ inches; width, 9½ inches

IN the woods with a painter who loved them and brought their atmosphere as well as their forms and colors to his canvases and their admirers. A woodland way leads with easy wanderings from an open foreground to a distant clearing, trunks tall and brown and gray and trunks slender on either hand; overhead for some distance the umbrageous arch is a dense and deep green with patches of autumn brown, and farther away the branches part and reveal glimpses of the sky. In the foreground a small spring pool, and in the middle distance a girl in a white cap seated on the ground.

Signed at the lower right, A. H. WYANT, 1877.

From the George A. Hearn Collection, New York, 1918.

CHARLES JOSHUA CHAPLIN

FRENCH: 1825—1891

34—PREPARING FOR THE BATH

Height, 16 $\frac{1}{4}$ inches; width, 10 $\frac{1}{4}$ inches

IN the foreground and facing the spectator, a young woman stands nude, holding with arms crossed at her breast a gauze drapery which falls to her feet. Her head is turned slightly toward her right shoulder, and her lower limbs are reflected in the water of the pool into which she is about to step. At either side a flower basket and an old-rose drapery; the surroundings light woods and shrubbery.

FRANZ VON DEFREGGER

AUSTRIAN: 1835—

35—THE LOVE LETTER

(Panel)

Height, 17½ inches; width, 11½ inches

STANDING in a gray informal pathway, which has just led her through a farm gate and along a steep green hillside, a blond maiden of the upper peasantry who faces the spectator on her way to the right is reading a love letter as she pauses. Its contents give her a happy expression. She wears a broad hat covering her braided hair, and she holds in her hand a heavy farm rake. A blue apron rolled up exposes her brown-gray skirt, and she wears a dark and open sacque over a red and green waist.

Signed on a rock at the right, DEFREGGER.

From the Peter A. Schemm Collection, 1911.

FERDINAND VICTOR LÉON ROYBET

FRENCH: 1840—1920

36—A PLEASSED CAVALIER

(Panel)

Height, 15¾ inches; width, 12½ inches

WITHIN the entrance of a gray room with stained glass windows, stepping forward and toward the left a tall cavalier is observed, hat in hand and casually bowing, and smiling in greeting someone unseen by the observer. His face is in profile and his smile eager. He has black hair and wears a white ruff, an elaborately adorned emerald doublet, and knee skirts of dark aubergine hue; sleeves and boots gray.

Signed at the lower left, F. ROYBET.

AUGUST FREDERIC ALBRECHT SCHENCK

GERMAN: 1828—1900

37—SHEPHERD AND FLOCK
IN A SNOW STORM

Height, 15 $\frac{3}{4}$ inches; length, 19 $\frac{3}{4}$ inches

THE snow lies deep on level ground and on gentle slopes, while rocks uncovered are seen outstanding at left and right. Through a broad level stretch between the rocks a shepherd leads his sheep, away from the observer and toward a golden setting sun which casts long shadows over the snow, while the wind drives drifting snow into the faces of man and animals.

Signed at the lower right, SCHENCK.

DIOR BERGLER

BOHEMIAN: 1759—1809

38—NYMPHS AT THE BATH

Height, 16 inches; length, 23½ inches

AT a fountain pool in a grotto of a wooded park six nymphs have gathered, some seated and some standing, with feet in the pool, some busy at toilet after the bath and some idling in repose. No two are in like attitudes, and all are nude save for variously disposed draperies of olive and blue, white and purple-rose.

DIOR BERGLER

BOHEMIAN: 1759—1809

39—TOILET OF VENUS

Height, 16 inches; length, 23½ inches

VENUS nude with an azure drapery thrown over knees is seated before a draped background, one of her maids in pale orange adjusting her sandals and one in pale olive dressing her hair, which is adorned with a rope of pearls. Others attend, one in mauve and one demi-nue. Distant at left, a landscape.

BELA VON SPANYI

AUSTRIAN: 1852—

40—IN THE WOODS

(Panel)

Height, 18 inches; length, 22 inches

At right and left tall beeches rise at the border of a foreground pond, and a pile of brush has been gathered at the right. At the edge of the water, on the farther side, a number of cows of various colors have assembled, from a meadow in a middle distance clearing, which is lighted from a bright blue and white sky.

Signed at the lower right SPANYI, P., 1888.

Exhibited at the International Exhibition, Munich.

EMILIO SANCHEZ PERRIER

SPANISH: 1853—1907

41—SPRING IN ALCALÁ

(Panel)

Height, 16½ inches; length, 22 inches

MIDWAY of the picture, at the centre of the middle distance, a slow moving river emerges from the right, between banks clothed with bushes and bushy trees whose spring foliage is in delicate notes of soft green and soft bluish-green. Across the background is the crown of a gently sloping hill, its surface the soft brown of a freshly plowed field. The stream coming forward placidly, reflects the hill and its own green banks. At left near the foreground a boy sits fishing.

Signed at the lower left, E. SANCHEZ PERRIER.

AIMÉ PERRET

FRENCH: 1847—

42—GIRL WAITING FOR BOATMAN

Height, 18 inches; length, 21 $\frac{3}{4}$ inches

ON a narrow river winding between green banks and sparkling with color in the reflections and refractions from a luminous sky, an old boatman is rowing in the foreground toward the bank at the left, where a peasant girl stands at the water's edge and near the end of a plowed field, an empty basket beside her. She is in brown and red, and heavy sabots, and already is exchanging speech with a sister in the approaching boat.

Signed at the lower left, AIMÉ PERRET.

ALFRED VON WIERUSZ-KOWALSKI

POLISH: 1849—

43—RUSSIAN STREET SCENE AT NIGHT

Height 26 inches; length, 19 inches

LIGHT from a moon unseen, in a sky from which shower clouds are disappearing, glistens on the surface of a broad street or road in a considerable but scattered village, many of whose houses are seen in the background and others nearer by at right and left. Coming toward the spectator is a carriage and four, with bright lamps beside the driver, who whips up his hastening team. To rear is a peasant's vehicle with two horses, and a led horse beside it, and at hand men stand in conversation.

Signed at the lower right, ALF. WIERUSZ-KOWALSKI.

JOHANNES HUBERTUS LEONARDUS DE HAAS

BELGIAN: 1832—1880

44—CATTLE AT PASTURE

(Panel)

Height, 18 inches; length, 25 inches

ROLLING fields of flat lands in the Low Countries are green with lush and deep grass and sprinkled with patches of weeds of differing color, and extend far and wide, with habitations indicated in the distance. Under a sky laden with moisture but with the high sun casting shadows, cattle wander and graze, and in the foreground a white and black cow and two red and white ones face the observer.

Signed at the lower right, J. H. L. DE HAAS.

FRENCH: CONTEMPORARY

45—MOUNTED SOLDIER

(Panel)

Height, 21 $\frac{1}{4}$ inches; width, 16 inches

ON a brown horse with black feet and white nose a soldier in blue trousers, red coat and bearskin cap sits facing the right, holding a musket across his saddle-bows. Green grass and sandy earth, and in the background trees and a hedge and beyond them some town buildings.

Signed at the lower right, JEAN BERNE-BELLECOUR, 1908.

JOHANN GEORG MEYER VON BREMEN

GERMAN: 1813—1886

46—THE FLOWER GIRL

Height, 21½ inches; width, 15 inches

A PLUMP, rosy and smiling young girl who has gathered a large basketful of flowers is walking toward the left in front of a dark wood, and pausing a moment directs over her left shoulder a pert and pleasant smile at the observer. She is in a broad but soft light against the dark background, and is depicted at three-quarters length. She wears a white underwaist with a short green bodice, and a dark skirt, with a red kerchief tied about her shoulders.

Signed at the lower left, MEYER VON BREMEN, BERLIN, 1882.

GABRIEL CORNELIUS VON MAX

GERMAN: 1840—

47—GIRL'S HEAD

Height, 20 inches; width, 16½ inches

HEAD and shoulders portrait of a blond young lady with large and soulful brown eyes, to left, three-quarters front, her face in a full soft light against a dark nebulous background. She leans forward upon her right elbow, with the right hand brought up to support her chin, and the hand and her loose and wavy blond hair share in the light that so softly illumines her face. She wears a black cap, with a loose flap overhanging on her right.

Signed at the upper right, G. MAX.

JOHANN GEORG MEYER VON BREMEN

GERMAN: 1813—1886

48—BLIND MAN'S BUFF

Height, 22 inches; width, 18 inches

HIDING behind a round-arched heavy wooden door which opens toward the observer, and under a table in the forward room, a young girl and three smaller children in silence aim to elude a little girl blindfolded who enters from the rear room. She carries a doll, and “peeks” a little as she enters. On the walls are kitchen utensils and on the floor some vegetables are lying.

Signed at the lower right, MEYER VON BREMEN, 1861.

From the Isaac Stern Collection, New York, 1912.

GERMAN: 1829—1910

49—THE AGED KNITTER AND HER PET BIRD

Height, 22 $\frac{1}{4}$ inches; width, 18 $\frac{1}{4}$ inches

SEATED on a high-backed chair upholstered in green an old woman in a brown dress and black sacque has paused at her knitting and interests herself in a white bird that has come out of its cage and standing on her work basket has caught a strand of her working material in its beak. She is white haired and wears a black cap, and a red kerchief about her neck.

Signed at the lower right, L. KNAUS, 1876.

JEAN JOSEPH BENJAMIN-CONSTANT

FRENCH: 1845—1902

50—PORTRAIT OF A YOUNG WOMAN
IN A CHARACTER PART

Height, 24 inches; width, 19½ inches

HIGHLY decorative portrait, at half-length, of a tall and queenly young woman whose red and golden hair, parted at the centre of the forehead, falls loosely but with careful direction before and back of her shoulders, and is surmounted by a golden and jeweled crown from which elaborately mounted medallions depend at either side of her face. Décolleté waist of deep cerulean tone, with a golden and jeweled sleeveless mantle over her shoulders. Figure to right, three-quarters front, and face turned to the front over her right shoulder. In her right hand a large clasped volume with jewels set in the binding.

Signed at the lower right, BENJN. CONSTANT.

JEAN BAPTISTE ÉDOUARD DETAILLE

FRENCH: 1848—1912

51—COMMANDER DIRECTING A CAVALRY CHARGE

Height, 24 inches; width, 20 inches

A PAINTING which won the award of the Grand Prix at the Salon. In the foreground a high officer in brilliant uniform and wearing his decorations, riding a black charger which is headed away and toward the right, turns in his saddle and looks back directly at the observer; a portrait. At his side and a little arear at left, his bugler on a white horse is sounding the charge, and at right in the distance the red coated cavalymen are galloping ahead.

Signed at the lower left, EDUARD DETAILLE, 1895.

JOSÉ DOMINGO

SPANISH: 1843—

52—CAVALIER DRINKING

(Panel)

Height, 25½ inches; width, 18 inches

A TALL man in crimson garb, with slashed sleeves, breeches coming half-way below his knees, and a loose and wrinkled broad-spreading white collar stands astride a bench at an inn, a refreshing glass half emptied in his left hand and his right hand raised in happy gesture toward the observer. He rejoices and laughs in initial inebriety, hailing the expectation of a convivial companion. His large hat is on the floor and a pitcher of his favorite tippie on the bench. Beyond a pillar two other men are visible.

Signed at the lower right, DOMINGO, 1881.

FRITS THAULOW

NORWEGIAN: 1847—1906

53—COTTAGES ON THE BANK
OF THE MILL STREAM

Height, 26 inches; length, 32 inches

ENTERING the picture in the middle distance at left, about a low green point, a gray stream comes forward rapidly, broadening to occupy the entire foreground, its rippling surface colored with the shadows of tree trunks and the reflections of brilliant spring blossoms, which line the farther bank in the distance and on the right. Beyond the flowering shrubbery and trees stand gray and creamy cottages with roofs of various colors, under a robin's-egg sky veiled with light nebulæ.

Signed at the lower right, FRITS THAULOW.

LUDWIG KNAUS

GERMAN: 1829—1910

54—OLD MAN SEATED AT TABLE

Height, 23 inches; width, 19 inches

DROWSING over his humble refreshment of sausage and a glass, an old and wrinkled, clean shaven man faces the spectator as he leans back against the wall of a gray room, in a corner of which he is seated. He is in brown and red and green and white, and wears a soft black cap. He leans his head upon his left hand, with elbow resting on the wooden table at his side, where a gray cat sits quietly keeping him company.

Signed at the lower right, L. KNAUS, 1874.

GERMAN: CONTEMPORARY

55—REPOSE

(Oval)

Height, 25 inches; width, 20 inches

RECLINING after a bath, a meditative beauty of youthful years is observed at less than half-length, her body prone, her head raised against a tall white cushion and an arm thrown back over her head. Light from above illumines her soft red hair and reflects from her nude breast, while her face is thrown into transparent shadow.

Signed at the left centre, LEO LERCH.

JULES WORMS

FRENCH: 1832—1881

56—SPANISH STREET SCENE

Height, 20 inches; length, 24 inches

AN open space in a Spanish town, with white and grayish buildings with brownish roofs at either hand and forming angles with a transverse street in the middle distance; more buildings and a brown mountain in the background. In the foreground a padré on a white ass, a man and woman in gay colors contemplating a gig whose standing driver offers his services, and other figures beyond the group.

Signed at the lower left, J. WORMS.

FRENCH: 1847—

57—LA TRICOTEUSE

Height, 28 $\frac{3}{4}$ inches; width, 23 $\frac{3}{4}$ inches

SEATED at the foot of a tree, one of two of somewhat sinuous trunks, a tall young peasant woman is knitting with blue yarn; she wears a dark green blouse with a tawny skirt which takes the blouse's color reflections, and a red cap. She faces the left, three-quarters front, and looking up from her work gazes into space. In the green countryside beyond her are cottages, and a shepherdess who stands guarding her sheep.

Signed at the lower right, AIMÉ PERRET.

ALEXANDRE GEORGES HENRI REGNAULT

FRENCH: 1843—1871

58—ALGERIAN DANCER

Height, 32 inches; width, 23½ inches

ON a long Oriental rug of warm red, simply decorated in green and black, a tall and dark skinned girl of robust yet supple development is dancing,—caught momentarily in a pose singularly graceful, notably in the nude upper body; from hips to ankles she is enwrapped in a varicolored garment of lateral stripes. Jeweled bracelets and golden chains adorn arms and bust, and in the dark, bushy hair massed above her shoulders are thrust leaves of red and green. Seated on the floor at her side a younger girl, with face in shadow, plays music for her on a lute.

Signed at the upper left, H R (monogram).

From the Hazeltine Collection, Philadelphia, 1913.

HENRI HARPIGNIES

FRENCH: 1819—1916

59—LANDSCAPE

Height, 24 inches; length, 39½ inches

At right a clump of trees, silvery and gray, slender and stout, standing in grass between a narrow footpath and a pond, over which one of them leans far, the tops of the others rising above the picture. At left, across the pond, some pollards, with rushes rising from the water in front of them, and in the distance green rolling fields dotted with trees turning to autumnal hues.

Signed at the lower right, H. HARPIGNIES, 1882.

DAVID ADOLPHE CONSTANT ARTZ

GERMAN: 1837—1890

60—KNITTING AT THE BEACH

Height, 24½ inches; length, 35½ inches

ON a sand dune overgrown with grass of soft green hue and dotted with small wildflowers of yellow and white, a young Dutch woman in a white cap and wearing a suit of tawny tone is seated, knitting. Over her lap is spread a black apron or robe, against which falls the soft purple of her knitting. She is observed in profile to left, and further to left in the middle distance a sloop-rigged working boat has just been run upon the beach, and figures appear in the shallows about it.

Signed at the lower right, ARTZ.

PIERRE AUGUSTE COT

FRENCH: 1837—1883

61—IDEAL HEAD OF A GIRL

Height, 28 inches; width, 22 inches

EMERGING from between white and greenish silken curtains after her bath, a young girl stepping from the right toward the left turns her pretty head and looks across her left shoulder toward the observer, smiling, and raising a finger to her chin; her nude shoulders appear above the curtain folds, and down her shoulders hangs her long light brown hair.

Signed at the lower right, P. A. COT, 1859.

FREDERICK HENDRIK KAEMMERER

DUTCH: 1839—1902

62—SITTING FOR HER PORTRAIT

Height, 32 inches; width, 22 inches

A HIGH and well lighted Old World studio, and an old artist in white peruke on an extemporized seat at the right, painting on a large oval canvas which is fixed to his easel, and studying his sitter. The artist is in a brown Court coat and knee breeches, with white stockings. His sitter, a lady of the period, wears a rose gown whose ornamentation is silver-white, waist tight and low cut; powdered and high coiffure. She is seated in a tapestried armchair with her feet on a tapestried cushion, on an improvised model stand—a packing-box called to this service.

63—THE EMPRESS EUGÉNIE

Height, 32 inches; width, 26 inches

Portrait at a little more than half length, standing; in a conservatory, and all but embraced by the laurel-green leaves of her floral background,—a bank of rich and beautiful rhododendron, a glowing crimson bloom of which she has plucked and holds in one hand. The beautiful Spanish woman faces the observer with a pensive smile. She is clad in a simple garment of soft white, lightly pinned with gold at the arms and drooping from her shoulders, revealing her breast. Her right hand clasps the folds of a rich mantle of mauve which hangs about her arms.

67—THE MOTHER AND HER CHILD

Height, 36½ inches; width, 31½ inches

FACING the right and three-quarters front a young Dutch peasant mother is seated in a low side chair in a cottage room, with light from a small window on the right falling upon her exposed breast and on the head of the white capped baby which she is suckling. She is in a gray-brown waist and dark blue skirt and wears heavy sabots; the child is frocked in reddish-brown. On a table before her, with a rush-bottomed chair beside it, are a few objects which share in the window's meagre light, the rest of the room being sombre, the light barely defining the reddish tile floor.

FRENCH: 1825—1905

71—THE LITTLE POUTER

Height, 49 $\frac{1}{4}$ inches; width, 34 inches

SEATED on a low chair near a fireplace a barefoot little girl, with light brown hair neatly done in waves and braids, rebels at “taking up her knitting,” and with finger at lips she looks at the spectator and away from an older sister, or a young mother, who seated beyond her smilingly urges her to “be good.” Both figures and faces notably expressive; the child’s apparel depicted in notes of gray with white accents, the elder girl’s displaying a soft red in the ornamented waist, above a soft blue skirt; the whole against a suave background of gray with smoky shadows. On the wall, utensils of copper and brass.

Signed at the lower right, W. BOUGUEREAU, 1888.

WILLIAM ADOLPHE BOUGUEREAU

FRENCH: 1825—1905

72—SONG OF THE SHELL

Height, 51 inches; width, 33 $\frac{3}{4}$ inches

A FAIR-HAIRED and blue-eyed young bather of generous proportions, nude and in a bright and soft light before the entrance of a dark grotto beside the sea, faces the spectator as she kneels on one knee on the white-yellow sand. With raised arm she holds in her right hand a shell to her ear, her head poised gracefully, and with her left hand she gestures silence, that she may hear the music from the mysterious depths of the shell. In the background, beyond a crag of the grotto, a glimpse of the blue sea.

Signed at the upper left, W. BOUGUEREAU, 1885.

75—OTHELLO AND DESDEMONA

Height, 33¾ inches; length, 51¼ inches

Othello: Her father loved me; oft invited me,
Still question'd me the story of my life,
From year to year; the battles, sieges, fortunes
That I have pass'd. . . .

These things to hear
Would Desdemona seriously incline: . . .
She'd come again, and with a greedy ear
Devour up my discourse.

Act I, scene III.

IN a gondola richly furnished, propelled across the blue-green water of the foreground, the aged Brabantio and his fair daughter are listening to the story of the Moor, who faces them. Desdamona leans forward, right elbow on the gunwale of the gondola and hand supporting her chin. Her venerable father at her side with an arm extended behind her wears a gold and white cap and robes of cardinal and ermine. Othello also richly appareled holds in his hands a scroll. In the background are sails, the Ducal Palace, the Campanile, St. Mark's and other buildings.

81—SAYING GRACE

Height, 18½ inches; width, 15¼ inches

AN humble cottage interior, in a mellow light; at an angle a plump young mother in a short blue bodice and dark purple-red skirt, enwrapped in the voluminous folds of a white outer garment and her head encased in a loose white cap. She is portrayed at full length, seated and facing the spectator, and while she holds a spoon and jug in either hand, waiting, she looks down at two small children at her side who with hands in posture of prayer give thanks for what they are about to receive.

SURPRISED BY SATYRS

(Board)

Height, 17 $\frac{1}{4}$ inches; width, 14 inches

IN a secluded spot at the edge of a wood, and within the confines of an abandoned park, as indicated by a sculptured urn at one side, four garlanded bacchantes nude or with scant draperies are lying in various postures asleep in a familiar group. From the right in the back-ground two satyrs have come upon them, and halt with difficulty.

84—HOLY FAMILY

Height, 22 inches; length, 28 inches

MARY, a young woman with oval face, rosy cheeks and keen eyes, is seated, portrayed at full-length and facing the left, with eyes directed across her left shoulder; leaning to her right, she places an arm around the neck of the infant Christ, nude, who half stands, half sits, at her side. She wears a décolleté gown of red and a deep blue mantle. Behind her at right Joseph looks across her left shoulder. Architectural and landscape background, with an eagle perched on the molding of a column at the left, reaching with its beak the branch of a neighboring tree.

86—MADONNA AND CHILD

(Panel)

Height, 19½ inches; width, 13½ inches

BEFORE a receding landscape background of mountains and valleys, trees and a river, and fortified palaces, in a cool bluish light, the Mother and Child are boldly painted in the large in the foreground, in a light which is warm and soft. The Mother stands back of a balustrade and faces the spectator and the right, appearing at three-quarters length, her right hand opening the pages of a prayer book which lies on the railing. In her left arm she holds the Child, nude, who slumbers, with His hand still clasping a breast at which He has suckled. The youthful Mother is in blue, with a crimson mantle.

87—HOLY FAMILY

(Panel)

Height, 26 inches; width, 22 inches

IN a soft light of gloaming, under a sky which shows only a horizon line of light above greenish-blue mountain tops in the distance, Mary, Joseph, the Christ and St. John appear in a group in the foreground. Mary, a fair young woman with golden hair, and faint pink rose in her cheeks, is in sitting posture and appears at three-quarters length, in a décolleté waist of deep rose and a green skirt and mantle. Joseph, a dark bearded man in a rose-yellow mantle, looks over her left shoulder. On her lap the Child is seated, nude, turning affectionately to the infant St. John, who stands at the Mother's right and approaches the Christ in devoted attitude.

"MASTER OF THE DEATH OF THE VIRGIN"

ABOUT 1525

88—MADONNA AND CHILD

(Panel)

Height, 26½ inches; width, 20 inches

THE Virgin, seated and facing the left, three-quarters front, is portrayed at three-quarters length, clasping the Child in her right arm, her left elbow rested on an ornamented ledge upon which ripe cherries are lying. She is in crimson, green and gold, with a dark green cap which does not conceal her Titian hair, whose color the Child's hair shares. Dark interior background with green drapery, and through a window at left an Italian landscape with castles, under a blue and white sky.

Formerly in the collection of Claude A. C. Ponsonby, by whom it was exhibited at the Royal Academy in 1907 (No. 19), with an attribution to Mabuse.

Since correctly assigned to the "Master of the Death of Mary," who takes his rather cumbrous appellation from the pictures of the "Death of the Virgin" in the Cologne and Munich Galleries. He is now usually identified with Joos van Cleve the Elder (1485?—1540?).

UNIQUE GOTHIC WALL PANEL

FIFTEENTH CENTURY

89—VIRGIN AND CHILD

Height (painting), 14½ inches; width, 9½ inches

Height (complete) 22½ inches; width, 18 inches

A SINGULAR work of primitive art, painting and deeply carved frame forming a single piece. The picture portrays the Virgin at three-quarters length, standing, a sweet-faced young woman after the manner of the primitives with head affectionately inclined toward the Child, whom she holds in her left arm, her right hand brought to her breast. The Child is depicted in distinctly feminine aspect and as of youthful years, and raises the right hand in blessing. Both figures are haloed in gold and apparelled in gold and rich colors, against a neutral greenish background which bears at right and left undeciphered inscriptions.

THE inclosing frame is all in a single piece of wood, carved in relief and in undercutting two inches deep, the designs including crudely carved angels supporting a crown over a dove, at the top, and at the sides and bottom birds and quadrupeds and foliage, and retaining vestiges of gilding and polychrome painting. Painting of the picture given to the Fifteenth Century, though the carving suggests possibly the Twelfth Century.

129—PORTRAIT OF A LADY

Height, 46 inches; width, 34 $\frac{3}{4}$ inches

A CHARMING young lady of the fair English type with roses in her cheeks and large blue eyes, her abundant reddish-chestnut hair loosely arranged and lightly bound by a white kerchief. She is seated on a heavy green, outdoor bench at the foot of a gnarled and leafless tree, and is portrayed at three-quarters length with figure slightly to left and face turned to the observer. Her white frock is crossed low over the breast and girdled in white, and she is draped in a mantle of old-golden hue. Within her hands, clasped over her lap, are roses and smaller flowers. Warm brownish conventional atmospheric background.

131—PORTRAIT OF A CAVALIER

Height, 48 inches; width, 37 $\frac{3}{4}$ inches

FACING the spectator and portrayed nearly at full length, standing, before a balustrade on an angle of which he rests his right hand, his left hand lightly supporting folds of the dark mantle which partly envelops him. A young gentleman of aristocratic bearing and affable expression, wearing the briefest, lightly upcurling moustache, his abundant dark locks or wig delicately curled. Rich black velvet coat, and white lace neck-cloth falling in broad folds well down his chest, its white tassels hanging below it.

Painted about 1670, a date which marks the best period of the painter.

Formerly in the collection of the 1st Marques of Dufferin (died 1902), and sold at Christie's, January 28, 1905, No. 93, as the "Portrait of a Gentleman."

Exhibited at the Hudson-Fulton Exhibition, Metropolitan Museum of Art, New York, 1909, No. 61.

133—CATHERINE DE SOUDEILLE

Height, 49 inches; width, 35 inches

THREE-QUARTERS length portrait of a young lady with pleasing and smiling face and fair complexion, and bright hazel eyes, seated at a corner of a crimson-upholstered sofa, with her left arm resting on the sofa's arm and her right hand in her lap where it holds a white scarf or veil or bit of soft drapery. She faces the front, with figure very slightly turned to the right. She wears a rich gown of brownish-black, of soft and deep material, the sleeves and skirt loose, the bodice tight and deeply décolleté, a small white ruff or fluffy collarette at her throat, and a rope of large pearls in three strands and supporting a pendant. Her hair is curled and powdered, and she wears a toque to match her gown, surmounted by a single white and curling ostrich plume.

On back: "Catherine de Soudeille, fille de Gabriel de Soudeille et de Magdeleine d'Aubusson Laffeuilade; mariée à Jean de Valon du Boucheron."

Also on back, a card: "No. 5552. Haro, Peintre-expert du Ministère des Travaux-Public et du Palais des Tuileries."

BARTOLOMÉ ESTÉBAN MURILLO

SPANISH: 1617—1682

143—LA VIERGE AU ROSAIRE

Height, 65½ inches; width, 45 inches

BOTH Mother and Child are depicted as very vivid human beings, without attempt at idealization, and both regard the observer intently and inquiringly, and with affable expressions approaching a sympathetic smile. The Virgin, portrayed at full length, is seated facing the right, three-quarters front; a dark-haired and large-eyed young woman with assertive nose and small mouth, a light brown veil over her head and draping her shoulders. She is clad in crimson, with a flowing mantle of deep green, and holds on her knee the Infant, who wears a garment of soft rose. He holds a cross against her breast and each has a hand on the rosary supporting it. Nebulous background with cherubim on high.

Murillo painted a number of pictures known as "Our Lady of the Rosary," the more important examples being in the Prado, Louvre and Dulwich Galleries, and in the Northbrook Collection. They all differ in details, and are described by C. B. Curtiss in "Velasques & Murillo," 1883.

146—LE MARCHAND DE VOLAILLE

(Panel)

Height, 9½ inches; width, 7 inches

STANDING just back of a stall railing, in a broad doorway or window arched by overhanging green grapevines, a middle-aged man faces the spectator and is observed a little more than half-length. His dark brown hair is worn long and in heavy curls which fall upon his shoulders, and he is garbed in a soft and rich red, with a broad white lace collar that with the top of his coat is left open at the throat. Before him on the railing are two of the birds which he sells, but his immediate interest, as is emphasized by his slightly too convivial smile, is in a tall green wine glass he holds out lightly as to a customer, while the silver or brilliant pewter jug for replenishing it stands at one side.

148—PORTRAIT OF A LADY

(Panel)

Height, 29½ inches; width, 23½ inches

HALF-LENGTH figure of a young lady, seated and facing the left, three-quarters front. She has deep blue eyes and a warm complexion, and her Cupid's-bow mouth is inclined to smile. Her dark hair falls in long ringlets down her shoulders, and shows a fringe of curls arching her forehead, while back of this it is brushed smoothly and encased in a headdress of pearls and gold. She wears a necklace of pearls which appears at her throat, and a deep and double shoulder collar of white lawn edged with white lace, which in front is decked with a small black bow at her breast. Her rich black gown shows a tight bodice with large, full sleeves. Neutral olive-brown background, with a coat-of-arms in colors at the upper left.

DUTCH: 1605—1691

149—CAVALIER DANS UN PAYSAGE

Height, 35 inches; width, 29 inches

ARMS of a river or the sea enter the landscape from the right, one coming to reedy shallows in the foreground, the other deeper and more important in the middle distance, where it is crossed by a stone bridge of numerous arches. Two horsemen ride their steeds into the water in the foreground at left, in the shade of trees and a bluff, one horse drinking, his rider with back to the spectator, the other rider facing the spectator at the extreme left. On the bank a dog barks at the drinking horse. On the stretch of land beyond the first water, in sunshine, flocks and herds and a shepherdess are seen, and a man who comes to the water after cows which have entered to drink. And beyond these, at the right, other figures are numerous about a tower which guards the bridge, and still others are on their way across the bridge, where a house is seen on the background shore.

150—INTERIOR WITH FIGURES

Height, 38 $\frac{3}{4}$ inches; length, 44 $\frac{1}{2}$ inches

IN a large and elaborate but rather dim interior adorned with paintings, a group of richly dressed people appear before a high mantle-piece, in a soft light. A fair-haired young man who has doffed his hat with a sweeping gesture raises a tall conical glass of red wine in honor of a tall and fair lady in silvery silk trimmed with gold, who faces him and is observed in profile to the left. In hastening to rise she has overturned her chair. Raising one hand to the youth who salutes her, she extends the other to an older man, who holds her fingers lightly and remains seated. He wears high boots and velvet breeches, a long-skirted coat of old golden yellow, and a brightly polished corselet belted with a crimson sash, and he holds the bottle from which the wine glass has been filled. He turns his head away from the standing couple, toward the spectator, and smiles quizzically, while a seated man and woman back of him at the left regard keenly the drinking episode. At right a maid enters with fruit.

151—LE BON SAMARITAIN

Height, 38½ inches; length, 50¾ inches

SCENE, a mountainous country darkening in a waning light, and near the centre of the composition an old white saddle horse facing away from the spectator and tied to a gnarled tree. To right of the horse the wounded traveler, clad in a single shirt of white, lies upon the ground, resting on one elbow and keenly observant of the aid about to be administered to him by the Good Samaritan. The Samaritan, clad in crimson and wearing a bizarre turban, crouches beside the injured one; he has taken from a case on the ground a vial and is about to dress the wounds. To left of the horse one of the unheeding, dressed in dark brown and bonneted in red, passes by, walking away from the observer and absorbed in a book.

152—PORTRAIT D'UN CARDINAL

Height, 47½ inches; width, 34½ inches

THREE-QUARTERS length, standing figure, to left, three-quarters front. A man of high color with short gray beard and moustache, and small dark eyes upon the spectator. He is in black brocade, with short white fold-over collar and short white turned-back cuffs, and over his shoulder he wears a purple cape. He wears a tall biretta, its color matching the cape. His right arm rests lightly on the back of a carved chair before him, and in his left hand he holds his gloves. Background of cardinal drapery, and on this at the upper right an elaborate coat-of-arms, with scroll inscribed: "Adrianus Baec . . . More Maiorum."

153—PORTRAIT OF A LADY

Height, 47½ inches; width, 36½ inches

STANDING on a balcony, with a column and drapery visible in the background at right, and at left the trees of a park seen beyond a balustrade, a tall young lady is observed at three-quarters length facing the observer and her glance directed slightly toward her left shoulder. She is in rich dark velvet brocade apparel, with cuffs and a deep ruff of fine white lace. Her golden-chestnut hair is adorned with pearls, and she wears a rope of pearls, fingering it lightly with her right hand, brought to her breast, and a heavy golden necklace which is looped across her breast. Her left hand, drooping easily at her side, holds a feather fan.

Collection Jules Porgès, Paris.

154—HERO AND LEANDER

Height, 44 inches; length, 61½ inches

(A companion to "Perseus and Andromeda")

GREEN-BLUE waters of the Hellespont, and far at left and in the distance the rocky Asian shore. In the foreground the form of Leander,

The lonely hope of Sestos' daughter, borne on a white drapery by sea nymphs waist deep in the water, while cupids break their bows aloft and Hymen's torches are plunged into the sea.

He struggles—he sinks—

"Sweet Hero, I die for thee!"

At right, in sombre mid-distance, rises the gray pile of "Sestos' rocky tower," from which Hero flings herself to perish in the waters that have taken away her lover.

EARLY FRENCH SCHOOL

155—PERSEUS AND ANDROMEDA

Height, 44 inches; length, 61½ inches

(A companion to "Hero and Leander")

AT left in the foreground the virgin daughter of Cepheus is seated on the fateful rock, a white mantle concealing little of her rounded figure, whose pliant flesh glows mildly in a softened light. One foot touches the waves, a shackle shows on her right wrist, and her left arm is raised in a gesture which directs attention to the approaching Perseus above, while her gaze is fixed upon the sea monster in front of her to right. At right in the middle distance, in a cove of a mountainous shore, the parents and people of the rescued maiden raise their arms in shouts to the re-echoing hills.

On the hills a shout
Of joy, and on the rocks the ring of mail;
And while the hungry serpent's gloating eyes
Were fixed on me, a knight in casque of gold
And blazing shield, who with his flashing blade
Fell on the monster.
